

ADVERTISING vs ELECTRICITY
When a merchant tells us that he doesn't believe in advertising, we're at as much a loss for a counter-argument as we would be were he to say he doesn't believe in the application of electricity.

S. P. BUYING RIGHTS OF WAY FOR FOURTH TRACK

The Southern Pacific Railroad Company is buying rights of way for a large truck road from San Jose to San Francisco to make sufficient room for four tracks which will be installed by the company in the very near future to provide for its increased freight and passenger traffic.

For many years the company has been making purchases of land along its property and fencing it. There is only a few strips needed to make the plan of operation complete. Deeds are being filed in the recorder's office at San Jose. Other deeds are to be filed in this county next week.

Successful men seem to be those who have the faculty of finding time to do the things they wish to do.

WOMAN WRECKS CAR
ON CROCKERY TRUCK

A small coupe was converted into a wreck yesterday and a Sequoia High School girl received a bad cut on her face when a woman, with whom the girl was riding and whose name was not learned, ran directly into a large truck loaded with crockery. The driver of the coupe was referred to Officer Celler. The difficulty in coping with the situation in many cases, Celler said, was that the people could not be found, as they only come for the week end or for short visits. He suggested that he be provided with suitable notices to tack on objectionable property warning the owners. This was considered in by the board and the officer instructed to warn violators in this manner.

THE DRIVER OF THE COUPE WAS PROCEEDING ALONG BROADWAY TOWARDS TOWN, AND WITHOUT SEEMING TO SLACKEN HIS PACE OR LOOK TO EITHER DIRECTION BEGAN TO CROSS THE HIGHWAY. A large truck loaded with crockery was just passing the intersection at the time, and the light car struck it full amidships, and wrecked the truck. A small amount of crockery was broken, but the truck was not damaged. The ladies in the car were picked up by a passing motorist and taken to the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Brown left Wednesday for Angels Camp, California. They will remain with the angels for about two weeks.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS OF GENERAL INTEREST CONCERNING WELL KNOWN LOCAL PEOPLE

John Ryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Ryan left his studies at Sequoia, and on Monday left as an assistant in the engineers' department of one of the Shipping Board's steamers. He will go to Seattle and on his return will go to Manila. The return to Redwood City will be just in time to enable him to re-enter the senior class at Sequoia.

Miss Natalie Hansen, one of the best known and most popular teachers in the local school department, was elected to a position in the Oakland schools this week, and will begin her labors in the east bay city in August. Beside her grade work, Miss Hansen has had charge of the physical education at Central school and has brought that branch of the work to a high state of efficiency. She has also specialized in art, and has special credentials for that line of instruction. Miss Hansen will be greatly missed in Redwood City.

Miss Hortense Gregory, teacher of English in the high school at Sherman, Texas, was in Redwood City during the week visiting her cousin, Mr. Chas. L. Dimmitt and family.

Miss Margaret Kirtland, who has been teaching in Bakerfield, is home for the vacation with her mother, Mrs. George Hoskins of Palo Alto. Donald Kirtland, a student in the University of Nevada, is also home for the holidays.

Redwood City seems doomed to spend a peaceful and sane Fourth according to action taken by the board of trustees last Monday evening. A resolution calling upon City Attorney Albert Mansfield to draw up immediately an ordinance prohibiting the use or sale of fireworks was passed by the board. The action by the local board is in line with the action of the county board who in the forenoon of the same day decided to enforce an ordinance which was passed in 1917, but which has not been enforced. Action at this time was thought necessary because of the dry year.

Another ordinance passed by the city board last Monday makes it obligatory upon the property owner to remove all weeds from the front of his property. If this is not done by the individual, the city will have the weeds removed and the cost will be assessed against the property.

Word was received this week of the appointment of Michael F. Brown, who for many years has been state inspector for the Motor Vehicle department for this district, to head of the departmental branch of the division in Los Angeles. The appointment of Brown became effective yesterday. He succeeded Harvey J. Bernard of Los Angeles, who resigned.

Brown is well known throughout the county and was very popular with all who knew him. His appointment to his present position is a distinct promotion, and one that was well merited.

They now put filling stations on the most prominent street corners. In the old days they were called barns.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Kempf of this city are receiving the congratulations of their friends upon the arrival of a baby boy born last week. Mrs. Kempf before her marriage was Miss Theresa Bartholomew.

Ed Kennison, Roy Peterson and Claude Fox made a flying trip to Halfmoon Bay last Wednesday morning at four o'clock and returned three hours later with 20 of the largest abalones seen here for a long time. Ed carried off the honors for the best catch. Deputy Fish and Game Warden Jack Burke, who guards the abalone interests over there, thought seriously of pinching the boys for their inability to each secure the limit, as the tide was unusually low, but when Peterson and Fox, who had no desire to off the "September Morn" stunt, explained that they were patrolling the rocky shore in the capacity of life guards, while Kennison was making the abalone one-piece diving suit, the trio was allowed to depart for home unmolested.

Mrs. James Zanoni with her baby daughter Marion, returned to her home in La Honda from the Palo Alto hospital last Saturday.

Louis Winkler of Ryan's Drug Store, and his wife and children are spending their vacation at their summer camp at La Honda.

Charging that Mrs. Katherine Harkness has made repeated slanderous statements which have injured her character, Miss Margaret Wantz of this city has filed suit in the Superior court here for $10,000. In a complaint Miss Wantz declares that Mrs. Harkness has stated that she has had improper relations with a man, and "had for a considerable period of time nightly occupied the bed with this man, not her husband." John Harkness, a local carpenter, is named as co-defendant with his wife in the action filed by Wantz. The Harknesses reside on Birch street in the Highlands.

WOODSIDE BRIEFS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Blackington and family will spend the week end at Santa Cruz.

The Ferdinand Winkler place has been leased for the summer to Miss Joliffe of San Francisco. Miss Joliffe is a sister of Mrs. Daniel C. Jackling.

A number of the horses and several of the riders of Woodside will take a part in the society circus at Menlo on Saturday.

Mrs. Fred H. Mighall is spending the week with Mrs. James Eya at the Eya's country place in Summer House Park on the Russian River.

Mrs. Charles Josselyn was hostess this week at two luncheons given at the Josselyn home for visiting friends from San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Meyer will leave within a week for a tour of Northern California, Oregon and Washington.

The Woodside School has closed for the season. On Thursday at the noon hour, a picnic luncheon was had by the side of the creek skirting the school grounds. For this picnic Mrs. Blackington furnished the cake, and 168 bottles of chilled milk were donated by the Gilman Ayshire Dairy of Woodside. During the afternoon of the same day athletic contests were held with prizes for each event. The victorious athletes and prize-winners were the following: Mary Dido, Tommy Tibbs, Covington Pringle, Lucy Tibbs, Cora Hosford, Susan Silva, Fred Blackington, and Oliver Gish.

On Friday the regular closing exercises were held. Three of the pupils, Jack Hosford, Vesta Tibbs and Ethel Hallett were presented with diplomas of Graduation, and all of them will, next year be pupils of the Sequoia Union High School.

Mrs. Arthur Wolfe and daughter, Hazel, are ill with an attack of tonsillitis.

All Kiwanis Night En- joyed by Club

Last Monday was observed by the local Kiwanis Club in company with the other 1240 Kiwanis Clubs in other parts of the United States and Canada. At this time a program prepared by the Kiwanis International, and observed simultaneously by all Kiwanis Clubs was observed in the fire house. This consisted of the singing of America by all, the reading of a message from the International President Arass by the president of the local club, Elmore B. Himm; invocation by Rev. R. J. Currie; and the singing of a club song, "Onward in Kiwanis" by all.

This program, which lasted for fifteen minutes, was followed by a banquet and the following program:

Talk on the meaning of All-Kiwanis Night and the Zero Hour—Rev. R. J. Currie.

Presentation of president's badge to President Elmore S. Himm, by Roy W. Cloud.

Interclub Relations Creed, Clarence Dossie.

At eight o'clock a long distance radio receiving set, which had been prepared for the occasion by Mark E. Ryan was tuned in and a radio concert enjoyed.

The banquet was attended by nearly all the members of the local club together with their wives and lady friends, and the tables which were well stocked with tasty viands were soon relieved of their load.

An interesting part of the program was the reading by Secretary A. C. Argo of telegrams from the Denver convention and from the local delegate, John Layne.

CARPENTER DIES SUDDENLY

Fred Martin, a carpenter employed at the city hall, died rather suddenly Wednesday evening, leaving a married daughter at El Paso, Texas, a son in Chicago, besides a son, Benjamin G. Martin of Sacramento, the latter came to Redwood City on being informed of his father's death. The funeral was held Friday at 2 P. M. from the funeral parlors of Timiney & Layne, the Rev. Owen of Olney, Interment was in Alta Mesa cemetery.

PARTY AT HEINER HOME

Miss Margaret Heiner entertained twenty-five of her high school friends Thursday evening at the home of her parents on El Camino Real. The young folks arrived about six-thirty and enjoyed a delightful dinner under the trees.

Later in the evening dancing gave the young folks a great amount of pleasure and they all voted Miss Margaret a most successful hostess.

STATE COMMISSION LETS
SKYLINE ROAD CONTRACT

A contract for the building of that portion of the Skyline boulevard, which will connect the King's Mountain road and the La Honda grade, was let by the State Highway Commission this week, and work on the new section will be started immediately. Work is now being rushed on the section between the Halfmoon Bay road and the King's Mountain road.

FLETCHER CUTLER BEING URGED TO ENTER CONTEST

The numerous friends of Fletcher Cutler, the well-known Burlingame attorney, are urging him to make the race for state senator in this district this campaign. He is a republican, and of course would aspire to secure that party's nomination. Mr. Cutler is considering the matter carefully, and in a short time will make known his decision. Should he enter the contest he would have a formidable contender as he would have the full support of the Native Sons, he being at present the first grand vice-president of the society. Mr. Cutler is one of the best known orators of the state, and if elected, would reflect credit upon the district.

The most destructive machine gun is as harmless as a sparrow. It's the man behind it that isn't.

WOMEN'S CLUB DELEGATES ARE ENTERTAINED BY LOCAL CLUB

The San Mateo County Federation of Women's Clubs entertained over two hundred guests Wednesday at the home of the Redwood City Womens Club.

Over a hundred of the visitors were delegates who were returning to their homes via San Francisco from the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs which met in Pasadena last week. Twenty-five local and San Mateo owners of automobiles met the ladies at San Mateo. They took them about the three cities, and then drove them to Stanford University, where they spent a very pleasant hour.

The return to Redwood City was made at twelve thirty, and at the Women's Club they were met by the ladies of San Mateo county and taken to the beautifully decorated tables and there served with an appetizing and most enjoyable lunch.

Mrs. Elizabeth Vickerson, president of the County Federation, presided, and in a most gracious manner made the visitors welcome. A string quartette from the San Mateo High School rendered some beautiful selections and Mrs. John D. Gish sang several old favorites in a manner which brought hearty applause. Mrs. Laflin, president of the local club, extended the welcome to Redwood City. Mrs. Elizabeth Kneese extended the right hand of fellowship for San Mateo county and Roy W. Cloud told of some of the beauty spots of San Mateo county. Different national and state officers then made interesting talks. The delegates from the different states then gave their impressions of sunny California, sang their state songs, gave their yells, and generally showed their joy in being in such pleasant surroundings.

At the conclusion of the meeting each visitor was presented with a beautiful bouquet and a basket of fruit. They then left for Portola, La Honda, Halfmoon Bay, and Montara, from whence they were taken to Ferry building, where the ladies of San Francisco were to entertain them at dinner.

The visitors were greatly impressed with the beauty of our homes and flowers, and the wonderful midday of the June day made each one of them a booster for California.

GRADUATION

THE first class from the new Sequoia Union High School went out last night and will now have to face its problems. The individual members of the class of 1924 no doubt have high resolves as to what they will accomplish and we sincerely hope that each member will attain his heart's desire.

When we look at the things given to the boy and the girl of 1924 we wonder if the children are appreciative of what their elders are doing for them. We are giving them the finest surroundings that money can buy. We are making the beautiful things of life free. We are housing them in palaces that would put the castles of medieval times to shame. We are requiring an educated faculty for each school that would compare favorably with the faculty of any university of the world fifty years ago. We have enriched the curriculum. We have stressed the physical education in order that a strong body might go with an educated mind.

All of these things and others that can not be enumerated have been done for the pupil of today. We cannot tell what the result will be. That story will be told in 1940. We can hope however, that a better citizenship will result. Personally we believe that the world is getting better every year and we are going to hold the happy thought that each one of the half hundred graduates of the first class of the new Sequoia will be a good citizen and a credit to the community in which he resides; one who can go out into life with a song in his heart and a smile on his face ready to meet life's problems as a good, well educated American should.

WILL SEEK NATIONAL HONORS

HON. Lawrence Flaherty, Collector of Ports of the District of San Francisco, president of the San Francisco Buildings Trades Unions, and state senator from San Francisco, has notified his friends that he will be a candidate for congress from the Fifth District of California, to succeed Mrs. May Nolan who now holds the position in Washington.

Mr. Flaherty is well known in San Mateo County as he was born and raised in San Mateo and spent his boyhood there. He is a product of the school system there. After leaving his home town he worked at his trade in San Francisco. His interest in Union matters and his ability to work and to speak soon marked him as a leader and he was sent to Sacramento to help make the laws for the state. He has been known at Sacramento as one of the finest, cleanest, most progressive men San Francisco has ever sent to the upper division of the state legislature. President Harding appointed him surveyor of port, and he has given a good account of his stewardship there. He is head of the Unions of the metropolis and is known by both labor and capital as a fair man.

His ambition to represent his state in the national congress is laudable and we hope that he will realize his desire. He resides in a district that is strongly union in its sentiment, and we predict that he will have the republican, the democratic, and every other party nomination.

OUR ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

SO much has been said and written lately about our wonderful new high school and its beautiful surroundings that we have for the time almost lost sight of the most important branch of our educational system, the elementary school. Redwood City has an elementary school system of which it can well be proud. The buildings are attractive and well equipped. The grounds surrounding them are spacious and attractively adorned. But chief of all the advantages is the splendidly equipped body of teachers that daily train the boys and girls in the way they should go.

It might be interesting also to the layman to know something of the methods of today as contrasted with those in use when we were boys. Methods of teaching have of course changed some because progress must be made in every direction if any institution is to continue. The most significant change we believe is in the method of advancing pupils from one grade to another. In the olden day Johnny had to pass an examination. He had to be able to read such a page and he had to know his six times tables. If he couldn't get by with these things he remained in the lower grade for a year. Now, group tests are given which determine the fitness of the child for advanced work. It isn't the amount that has been learned, it is the child's ability to do the work beyond, that determines the matter of promotion. Next in importance is the fact that the tests may determine that it would be better for the child to remain in the lower grade for a short time. This does not mean, however, that he must remain for a whole year, as he is given opportunity work which will bring him up in certain subjects and after these are mastered he may go into the advanced grade immediately. There is no lock step in the present educational program.

The studies are arranged to give facility of thought and expression. Silent reading, which gives an understanding of each subject, is featured. Arithmetic which is associated with the problems of the home is taught. Each subject is socialized. Project work which gives an interest because it relates to something in the child's life is given an important part in the daily program. Altogether the work is made as attractive as can be so that every pupil will have a chance to advance as rapidly as is possible.

In the new intermediate school, which will be housed in the old high school building, the program will be arranged so that the courses will be similar to those of the high school. This will give the child an opportunity of learning secondary school methods while still in the lower division. Taken as a whole Redwood City has a wonderfully well developed elementary school system.

SEQUOIA UNION HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES TWENTY-SIXTH CLASS

For the twenty-sixth time in the history of the Sequoia Union High School, a class of graduates have left the walls of the school and will enter useful vocations in the world. The present class, however, is unique in being the first to graduate from the new Sequoia; the first to receive their diplomas in the new auditorium, and the first class in which the sons and daughters of Sequoia Alumni have graduated.

From the time the first class graduated in 1898 every class of graduates with the exception of the class of '06, has been handed their diplomas in the old Alhambra theatre, now the Masonic temple, until last year. In 1906 owing to the fact that the earthquake had damaged the Alhambra severely, the class received their parchments in the old gymnasium. Last year, as the Masons had purchased the theatre and were remodeling it, the class was graduated in the Sequoia theatre on Broadway.

Now for the first time the new auditorium of the school was used for this purpose, and the great building was packed with relatives and friends of the graduates. The class consisting of 68 members, was seated on the spacious stage of the auditorium, and received their diplomas from President Walter Kellogg of the board of trustees of the school district.

Awards for scholarship and athletics were made to the following: Geo. C. Ross Debating Medal—Jerome Macdonald. George B. Walsh History Medal, Miss Dorothy Chilcott. D. W. Williams Boys' Athletics Medal—Jack Kellogg and Noble Cloud. A. C. Argo and John Gill Girls'

Athletic Medal—Aurelia Brown. Scholarship Gold Pins—Alex Boonberg, Aurelia Brown, Dorothy Chilcott, Beatrice Ellis, Georgianna Honeck and Margaret Kalenborn. Scholarship Silver Pins—Marie Haurat, Bernice Martin and Elbert Thomas.

NEWS OF MENLO PARK

Last Sunday at the Noel place the household goods and personal effects belonging to Mrs. Cameron, late of China, were appraised by J. A. Why, an expert appraiser of merchandise of the appraisers department of the government. He was accompanied from San Francisco by Carl Soldat, the customs broker and his pretty wife. Mrs. Cameron is the new purchaser of the Noel estate.

Emma Shurtz has disposed of her drygoods store on Oak Grove avenue to Mrs. Dorothy Martin of Berkeley and her daughter. The purchasers are to reside at Burlingame for the present, where their family live. The store is to be enlarged and a bigger stock put in.

A grass fire started on the Sharon estate Wednesday afternoon by a young man who carelessly threw away the butt of a lighted cigarette on the side of the Walsh road. The flames spread to the lands of the estate, rapidly advancing until fifty acres were laid bare. All the pastures were destroyed beside several tons of hay belonging to J. J. Murray who leases the property from Mrs. Sharon. The flames were stopped by the efficient work of the Menlo Park fire department.

It was rumored yesterday that a number of San Francisco multi-millionaires had formed a combination to establish a large cement plant at Cooley's Landing at Ravenswood. It is to be larger than the one at Redwood City. Several million dollars are to be expended in building the plant. The shell banks there are to be used in the manufacture of cement. If this is true there would be a big boom in that locality. The chicken colony would experience a thrill of prosperity such as it never had before. Let it be hoped the rumor is well founded.

To demonstrate the demand for Menlo Park real estate it might be stated that a Palo Alto broker last week placed thirty-six lots on the market for sale, and in less than six days they were disposed of at fancy prices. The property is on the highway between Menlo Park and San Francisco bridge. The buyers were from Palo Alto and San Francisco.

Miss Bertha Agard left during the week on a motor trip to Los Angeles to spend her annual vacation.

Myra Kurtz will leave next Tuesday.

The grammar school closed for the summer vacation Thursday. The school in the evening presented a splendid program for the closing of the greater portion of the pupils taking part. All acquitted themselves well, showing the careful training given them by the devoted teachers. The performance was attended by the parents of the scholars filling the auditorium of the school to capacity. Perhaps not in the history of the institution was such an enjoyable program presented for those present speak in glowing terms of the efforts of the embryo actors and actresses. There were twenty-one pupils in the graduating class, the largest graduating class in many years. Many of the young graduates will attend the high school at Redwood City next term.

Word was received yesterday by his parents that Albert Kurtz had fractured his leg on Thursday in Baker City, Oregon. The details of the accident were not stated. Young Kurtz left for Oregon a month ago.

A movement to form a water district to comprise Woodside, Atherton and Menlo Park has been inaugurated by the municipality of Atherton. This movement contemplates the purchase of the Bear Gulch Water Company. The promoters feel that the present and future needs of these districts can best be conserved by public ownership. The bonding of the district within the territory named will provide ample funds to enlarge and develop the property now owned by the Bear Gulch Water Company.

It is proposed to submit the proposition to the voters of the district who in the near future will be called upon to pass judgment on this some what involved proposition.
